Dear Dr May:

Thank-you for participating in Constellation New Energy's Safety and Wellness Kickoff in Reno Nevada on January 15, 2007, your approach to weight issues and exercise is enlightening. The message was delivered with compassion, humor, and energy. The audience could relate to many of your personal experiences.

Our participants were able to walk away from your presentation and immediately use your information. Over the remaining few days of the program, many people were heard using your phrases and constructive approach to eating. Many of the individuals spoke about taking this message home.

We appreciated your time and expertise.

Sincerely,
